

Fair use includes the ability to record TV broadcasts. I do not record to pirate TV, rather I record to time shift when I can view TV. The ability to record allows me to watch MORE TV because by time shifting I can select good shows that are broadcast when I would be unable to watch them live. Should TV recording be blocked my investment in VCRs and TiVo would become worthless and my need for any TV would be greatly diminished.